SECT. 5. When the Mayor shall desire to vacate the Chair, he shall call the Chairman of the Board to take it, and in his absence the senior member present. Sect. 16. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Chair shall so direct.

Sect. 17. Any member may require the division of a question, when the sense will admit of it. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible; but a motion to strike out being lost, shall not preclude amendment, or a motion to strike out and insert.

Sect. 18. No motion or proposition of a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

Sect. 19. Motions and reports may be committed or recommitted at the pleasure of the Board.

Sect. 5. In all cases the President may vote.

Sect. 6. When the Council shall determine to go into a Committee of the Whole, the President shall appoint the member who shall take the Chair. The President may at any other time call any member to the Chair, but said substitution shall not continue beyond an adjournment.

Sect. 7. On all questions and motions whatsoever, the President shall take the sense of the Council by yeas and nays, provided one-fifth of the members present shall so require.

Sect. 8. The President shall propound all questions in the order in which they are moved, unless the subsequent motion shall be previous in its nature, except that, in the naming sums and fixing times, the largest sum and longest time shall be put first.

Sect. 9. After a motion is stated or read by the President, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Council, and shall be disposed of by vote; but the mover may withdraw it at any time before a decision or amendment.

Sect. 10. When a question is under debate, the President shall receive no motion, but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, to amend, or to postpone indefinitely, — which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged; and a motion to strike out the enacting clause of an Ordinance shall be equivalent to a motion to postpone indefinitely.

Sect. 11. The President shall consider a motion to adjourn as always in order, except upon an immediate repetition; and that motion, and the motion to lay on the table, or to take up from the table, or to take the previous question, shall be decided without debate.

Sect. 12. He shall put the previous question in the following form: "Shall the main question be now put?" and all debate upon the main question shall be suspended until the previous question shall be decided. After the adoption of the previous question, the sense of the Council shall forthwith be taken upon amendments reported by a Committee, upon all pending amendments, and then upon the main question.

Sect. 13. All incidental questions of order, arising after a motion is made for the previous question, shall be decided without debate, except on an appeal; and on such an appeal, no member shall be allowed to speak more than once without leave of the Council.

Sect. 14. When two or more members happen to rise at once, the President shall name the member who is first to speak.

Sect. 15. All Committees shall be appointed and announced by the President, unless otherwise provided for, or especially directed by the Council.

RIGHTS, DUTIES, AND DECORUM OF MEMBERS.

Sect. 16. In the absence of the President, the senior member present shall call the Council to order, and preside until a President pro tempore shall be chosen by ballot; and, if an election is not effected on the first trial, on a second ballot a plurality of votes shall elect.

SECT. 17. Every member, when about to speak, shall rise and respectfully address the President; shall confine himself to the question under debate, and avoid personalities; and shall sit down when he has finished. No member shall speak or vote out of his place without leave of the President.

SECT. 18. No member speaking shall be interrupted by another, but by rising to call to order, or for explanation.

SECT. 19. When a vote has passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted in the majority to move a reconsideration thereof, at the same or the succeeding meeting, but not afterwards; and, when a motion for reconsideration is decided, that vote shall not be reconsidered.

SECT. 20. No member shall be obliged to be on more than two Committees at the same time, nor Chairman of more than one.

SECT. 21. No member shall be permitted to stand up to the interruption of another, while any member is speaking; or to pass unnecessarily between the President and the person speaking.

SECT. 22. When any member shall be guilty of a breach of either of the Rules and Orders of the Council, he may be required by the President to make satisfaction therefor; and, in such a case, he shall not be allowed to vote or speak, except by way of excuse till he has done so, unless otherwise ordered by the Council.

SECT. 23. No member shall be permitted to vote or serve on any Committee, on any question where his private right is immediately concerned, distinct from the public interest.

Sect. 24. Every member who shall be present when a question is put, where he is not excluded by interest, shall give his vote, unless the Council, for special reasons, shall excuse him; application to be so excused on any question, must be made before the Council is divided, or before the calling of the yeas and nays, and such application shall be accompanied by a brief statement of the reasons, and shall be decided without debate.

Sect. 25. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the President shall so direct.

Sect. 26. Any member may require the division of a question, when the sense will admit of it. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible; but a motion to strike out, being lost, shall not preclude amendment or a motion to strike out and insert.

Sect. 27. No motion or proposition of a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

Sect. 28. Motions and reports may be committed or recommitted at the pleasure of the Council.

Sect. 29. At every regular meeting of the Council, the order of business shall be as follows:—

1. Papers from the Board of Aldermen.
2. Unfinished business of preceding meetings.
3. Communications and reports from City Officers, Presentation of Petitions, Remonstrances, and Memorials.

4. Reports of Committees.
5. Motions, Orders or Resolutions.

SECT. 30. When a vote is doubted, the members for and against the question, when called on by the President, shall rise and stand till they are counted.

SECT. 31. All questions relating to priority of business to be acted upon shall be decided without debate.

SECT. 32. When a motion is made to refer any subject, and different Committees are proposed, the question shall be taken in the following order:

A Standing Committee of the Council.
A Select Committee of the Council.
A Joint Standing Committee.
A Joint Select Committee.

SECT. 33. The seats of the members of the Council shall be numbered, and shall be determined, in the presence of the Council, by drawing the names of members, and the number of the seats, simultaneously; and each member shall be entitled for the year to the seat bearing the number so drawn against his name, and shall not change it, except by permission of the President.

SECT. 34. No member shall call another member by his name in debate, but may allude to him by any intelligible and respectful designation.

SECT. 35. If the reading of any paper is called for and any member objects thereto, it shall be decided by the Council.

SECT. 36. No rule or order of the Council shall be dispensed with, altered or repealed, unless two-thirds of the members present consent thereto.

PETITIONS, MEMORIALS, ETC.

SECT. 37. All papers addressed to the Council shall be presented by the President, or a member in his place; and shall be read by the President, Clerk, or such other person as the President may request; and shall be taken up in the order in which they are presented, except when the Council shall otherwise determine.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES, ETC.

SECT. 38. The rules of proceeding in the Council shall be observed in Committee of the Whole, so far as they are applicable. A motion to rise, report progress, and ask leave to sit again, shall be first in order, and shall be decided without debate, and the previous question shall not be moved.

SECT. 39. A Standing Committee on Elections and Returns, and Standing Committees on Streets, Police, Internal Health, Ferries, Fire Department, and Common and Squares, shall be appointed at the commencement of the municipal year, and shall consist of five members each.

SECT. 40. No Committee shall sit during the sessions of the Council without special leave.

SECT. 41. All Committees of the Council, chosen by ballot, or consisting of one or more from each ward, shall be notified of their first meeting by the Clerk, by the direction of the President; they shall organize at their first meeting, by the choice of a Chairman, and shall report the same to the Council; and members, on the part of the Council, of Joint Committees, chosen as aforesaid, shall choose a Chairman at their first meeting and report to the Council in like manner.

In all cases where the President appoints a Committee, unless otherwise provided for, the member first named shall be Chairman, and in his absence, the member next in order who shall be present shall be Chairman pro tempore.

SECT. 42. All Select Committees of the Council shall consist of three members, unless otherwise ordered.

SECT. 43. No Report of any Committee shall be entitled to be received, unless agreed to in Committee assembled.

SECT. 44. No meeting of any Committee shall be called upon less notice than twenty-four hours.

SECT. 45. It shall be the duty of all Standing Committees to keep a record of their doings in books provided by the city for that purpose.

SECT. 46. Committees of the Council, to whom any matter is specially referred, may be required to report within four weeks, or ask for further time.

ORDINANCES, ORDERS, ETC.

SECT. 47. All Ordinances, Orders and Resolutions shall have two several readings before they are finally passed; and no Ordinance, Order or Resolution imposing penalties, or authorizing the expenditure of money, — whether the same may have been appropriated or not, — and no Order or Resolution authorizing a loan shall have more than one reading on the same day; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the passage of an order at any meeting of the Council, to authorize the printing of any document relating to the affairs of the city.

ELECTIONS, ETC.

SECT. 48. In all elections by ballot on the part of the Council, the number of blanks and ballots for ineligible persons shall be reported, but shall not be counted in the returns.

SECT. 49. All salaried officers shall be voted for by written ballots.

DUTIES OF CLERK, ETC.

SECT. 50. The Clerk shall keep minutes of the votes and proceedings of the Council; enter thereon such orders and resolutions as are adopted, by their title or otherwise; shall notice Reports, Petitions, Memorials, and other papers which are presented; and shall enter all accepted Reports of Select Committees of the Council, at length, in a separate journal to be kept for that purpose, and provided with an index; shall draw up all messages to the Board of Aldermen, and send them by the Messenger; and shall attend the meetings of Committees of the Council, and make their records when required.

SECT. 51. The members of the Council shall not leave their places on adjournment, until the President shall declare the Council adjourned.

FIRE ALARM TELEGRAPH.

[Ord. p. 225.]

Office, City Hall.

Superintendent, John F. Kennard. Salary, $2,500 per annum. [Chosen by concurrent vote.] He has also the care and charge of all the public Bells and Clocks.

Operators, Charles A. Stearns, James N. George, Cyrus A. George, Granville S. Mendell, $4 per day.

Repairers, George S. Thom, Adam McAfee, Uzziel Putnam, $4 per day. Charles M. Chaplin, General Assistant, $2 per day.

A constant watch is kept at the office, City Hall, night and day, by the operators. Each operator serves two alternate terms, of three hours each, as principal, and the same as assistant operator; so that twelve hours' service at the office, out of every twenty-four, is required from each operator. No operator is permitted to sleep during his watch, unless expressly relieved by some one else, and by consent of the Superintendent.

Each operator is accountable to the Superintendent for any mistakes that may occur at the office during his hours of duty.

An accurate account is kept of the time of giving each alarm, and of the station from which it originates, and all other necessary information.

Alarms are transmitted to the Central Office, from the Signal Stations or Boxes, by turning a crank in the Box. The police officers, and one other person resident near each station, have keys to the Boxes.

The ringing of the bells and the tapping of the Boxes, each denotes the number of the Station from which the alarm originated: thus, — one blow, a pause, three blows, another pause and two blows (1 — 3 — 2) indicates that the alarm came from Box No. 132.

Alarms are usually given in less than a minute from the time the crank is turned in any Box.

DIRECTIONS TO THOSE WHO HOLD SIGNAL KEYS.

1. If a fire is discovered in your vicinity, go to the nearest Box.

2. Turn the crank twenty-five times, slowly and steadily. Wait at the Box, and direct the firemen to the fire.

3. If you hear no reply at the Box, or on the bells, turn again. If still no reply, go to another Box.

4. The Police, upon hearing the bells, will spring their rattles and call the number of the station.

CAUTIONS.

1. Be sure your Box is locked before leaving it.
2. Never open the Box, except in cases of fire.

3. Never let the key go out of your possession, unless called for by the Superintendent.

There are 112 Signal Stations distributed and located in accordance with the following plan:

OFFICERS.

Justin Winsor, Superintendent and Secretary of the Trustees.
Edward Capen, Librarian, William A. Wheeler, Ass't Sup't,
Joseph Sykes, Office Secretary, William E. Ford, Janitor.

Although the need of a public library had been for a considerable time felt and acknowledged, and a small number of volumes of a miscellaneous character had been sent to the City Hall with a view to the future formation of such an institution, nothing definite in relation thereto was done until the fifth of August, 1850, when Hon. JOHN P. BIGELOW, then Mayor of the city, contributed the sum of one thousand dollars for the purpose of establishing the Public Library. This donation, being the first money that was given for the object, was received joyfully, and funded by the City Council; and the Committee on the Library were directed "to proceed with as little delay as possible to carry into effect the establishment of a free Public Library."

Joshua Bates, Esq., of London, whose early life was passed in Boston, having offered to this city the munificent sum of fifty thousand dollars, towards the purchase of books for the Public Library of the city, if the city would erect a suitable building for that purpose, — on the 24th of February, 1853, an order was passed by the City Council, authorizing the Committee on the Library, in conference with the Board of Trustees, to purchase a suitable site for the erection of a building which should be fully adapted for the purpose of the Library, including Mr. Bates's donation. Accordingly, said Committee purchased 23,380 feet of land on Boylston Street, opposite the Common, upon which an elegant and commodious edifice has been erected, at a cost to the city, for land and building, amounting to about $365,000.

This building was finished and delivered into the custody of the City Council, and by the City Council was transmitted to the care of the Trustees of the Public Library, with appropriate ceremonies, on January 1, 1858.

Besides the above mentioned donations in money, the sum of ten thousand dollars was subsequently given by Hon. Jonathan Phillips, who, by his will, bequeathed an additional sum of twenty thousand dollars for the maintenance of the Library. Another sum of ten thousand dollars was bequeathed by the late Hon. Abbott Lawrence. All of these sums have been funded by the City Council, and the annual proceeds are expended for the purchase of books of permanent value.

The sum of one thousand dollars was given by the late Samuel Appleton, Esq., and the same amount by Mrs. Sally I. K. Shepard, for the purpose of procuring books for the immediate use of the public.

Very valuable donations of books have been made by the late Rev. Theodore Parker, the heirs of Hon. Nathaniel Bowditch, George Ticknor, and others.

The Library opens at 9 o'clock, A. M., every secular day throughout the year, except the five legal holidays, and such other days as the Trustees may direct.

The Reading Room, provided with seats for one hundred readers, is closed at 10, P. M.

The Fine Arts Room, where ladies can use the Lower Hall catalogues, is closed at 8, P. M.

The Lower Hall delivery of books ceases at 8, P. M. This Hall now contains over 28,000 volumes.

The Bates Hall delivery of books for home use as well as for use in the hall, ceases at 6, P. M., from October to March, and at 7, P. M., from April to September. This hall now contains over 118,000 volumes.

Persons admitted to use the Library. — Any person above the age of fourteen years may use the Reading Room (which has now by far the best collection of American and foreign periodicals in the country), and, if above sixteen, may make use of the books within the building.

All inhabitants of Boston above the age of sixteen years; all clergymen and teachers having regular occupation in the city, though not residents; and all, even if under sixteen, who have received certificates of graduation, medals, or Lawrence prizes, from the Public Schools, and are still inhabitants of Boston, or who belong to the Girls' High and Normal Schools, are entitled to a full use of the Library. All classes in this paragraph must have signed the application card and given satisfactory reference to two citizens. The registration takes place in the Fine Arts Room.

All members of such other of the higher educational institutions in the city, as the Trustees may have especially permitted, are entitled to a full or a partial use of the Library.

The election of Mayor for 1845 was more warmly contested than in any former year. There were not less than eight several ballotings by the citizens. At the eighth trial, on the twenty-first of February, Thomas A. Davis was elected.

In the mean time, from January to February 27, 1845, William Parker, one of the aldermen, having been elected Chairman of the Board of Aldermen, performed the duties of Mayor.

On the sixth of October, Thomas A. Davis, being in declining health, resigned the office of Mayor, which resignation, however, was not accepted by the City Council; and on the twenty-second of November he died, being the first Mayor who has died in office since the organization of the City Government in 1822.

On the eleventh of December, Josiah Quincy, Jr., was elected Mayor by the City Council, for the unexpired term of 1845.

Benson Leavitt, one of the Board of Aldermen, acted as Chairman of the Board in the interval between the death of Mr. Davis and the election of Mr. Quincy.

In 1851, Benjamin Seaver, having already been elected an Alderman of the City for 1852, was afterwards chosen Mayor for said year.

At the commencement of the ensuing municipal year, 1852, he resigned as an Alderman, and accepted the office of Mayor.

The election of Mayor for 1854 was continued through three ballotings, from December 12, 1853, to January 9, 1854. In the mean time, the duties of Mayor were performed by Benjamin L. Allen, Chairman of the Board of Aldermen.

ALDERMEN.

Nathaniel P. Russell, Daniel Baxter, Joseph H. Dorr, re-elected; and Thomas B. Wales, and Redford Webster, elected 1825, declined.

George Blake, re-elected for 1826, declined.

John Stevens, elected for 1832, died prior to the organization.

James Savage, elected for 1834, declined.

In 1845 William Parker resigned.

In 1848 George E. Head resigned, and was afterwards chosen one of the Principal Assessors.

In 1853 Lyman Perry, Esq., who had been duly elected an Alderman, died before his qualification.

In 1856 Levi B. Meriam, Esq., died while in office.

In 1858 Rufus B. Bradford resigned, and was afterwards appointed Measurer of Grain.

In 1859 Timothy A. Sumner, Esq, resigned on account of illness, and soon afterwards died.

At the municipal election in 1852, nine Aldermen had a majority of ballots; but in accordance with the statute, the eight who had the highest number of votes were declared elected.

The Municipal Government for 1855 was the first one that was organized under the new or revised City Charter, which provided for the annual election of twelve Aldermen.

For reports of contested seats in the Board of Aldermen, see City Document No. 7, for 1861, and City Document No. 16, for 1862.

COMMON COUNCIL.

William Bowes Bradford, Ward 3, elected 1822, did not qualify himself, declining to be sworn, there being then no provision for affirmation, except for Quakers.

Lucius Manlius Sargent, Ward 6, elected for 1827, declined.

Henry D. Gray and Isaac Harris, Ward 1; Eleazer Howard, Ward 2, and Joseph H. Thayer, Ward 9, elected for 1828; also, Holmes Hinckley, Ward 11, for 1845, declined prior to the organization.

Samuel Thaxter, Ward 6, elected for 1830, declined.

William Foster, Ward 6, elected for 1831, declined.

John Boles, Ward 3, re-elected for 1838, declined.

The Junior of George Morey, omitted 1829.

Asa Adams, Ward 3, took the intermediate name of Perry, 1830.

The Junior of Joshua Seaver, Ward 6, omitted 1833.

The Junior of Henry Fowle, Ward 2, omitted 1837.

The Junior of Francis Brinley, Ward 10, omitted 1838.

The Junior of Ezra Lincoln, omitted 1851.

The Junior of William B. Fowle, omitted in 1865.

Ezra Forristall, Ward 6, resigned in May, 1853, and was elected Superintendent of Health.

Daniel J. Coburn, Ward 5, resigned in April, 1855, and was thereafter appointed Chief of Police.

Edward F. Robinson resigned in May, 1861, and was elected a Principal Assessor.

Charles J. McCarthy, Ward 7, resigned in March, 1862, and was appointed Paymaster of Relief Funds to Families of Soldiers in the United States service from Boston.

There have been eleven successfully contested elections.

The first, February 22, 1830, vacated the seat of a member from Ward 6, on the ground that "closing the poll before the hour at which the voters were notified it would be closed, was a violation of the rights of the voters."

The second, May 7, 1835, vacated the seats of the members of Ward 3, who were returned as having been elected at an adjourned meeting, December 11, 1834, on the ground of irregular proceeding, to render the whole number of votes certain by taking the highest number of votes for candidates on each opposing ticket; adjournment of the meeting by the sole authority of the Warden, and other irregularities, at the annual election, December 8.

The third case, March 7, 1830, vacated the seats of three members of Ward 12, on the ground that a number of illegal voters sufficient to affect the choice, voted at the polls.

The fourth, February 9, 1843, vacated the seats of three members from Ward 1, returned as elected at the adjourned meeting, December 14, on the ground that four votes for non-resident candidates, (after having been first thrown out by the ward officers *) were counted at the annual election, December 12, thereby preventing the choice of two other candidates, who, by excluding the said four votes, were by the decision of the Council declared elected, leaving one vacancy.

The fifth, February 27, 1851, vacated the seats of two members from Ward 3, on the ground that they were chosen at an adjourned meeting, which was illegally held. At the subsequent trial the same members were again returned to the Common Council.

The sixth, January 20, 1853, vacated the seats of three members of Ward 3, on the ground that they were chosen at an adjourned meeting which was illegally held.

The seventh, in accordance with the Report of the Committee on Elections, vacated the seats of three members from Ward 11, on the ground that the Mayor and Aldermen had no right to issue warrants for election of members of the Common Council, after the annual election, and before the organization of the Government elect. But inasmuch as the elections in question were conducted bona fide, and no other informality was apparent, and as this custom of supplementary elections had been in vogue for twenty years, the members thus elected were by the votes of the Common Council declared entitled to their seats.

* This fact was admitted, though not stated in the Report of the Committee.

The eighth, March 19, 1863, in accordance with the Report of the Committee on Elections, vacated the seat of a member from Ward 3, on the ground that at the time of his election he was not an inhabitant of that ward. Before a decision was reached on this point the member in question resigned.

The ninth, April 9, 1863, vacated the seats of the entire delegation from Ward 10, on the ground that more votes were returned than there were persons who voted in that ward at the municipal election, — occasioned by mistake, probably, in the counting of the ballots, — the variation being so great as to affect the election of the whole delegation. At the subsequent trial the same members were again returned to the Common Council.

The tenth, January 24, 1867, vacated the seat of a member from Ward 3, who was chosen at an adjourned meeting (held on account of a tie vote at the regular meeting, Dec. 10, 1866), on the ground that the Polls, at said adjourned meeting, were not kept open the same number of hours as were required by the original warrant. At a subsequent election the same member was returned to the Common Council. [See City Doc. 12, for 1867.]

The eleventh, January 16, 1868, vacated the seat of a member returned for Ward 10, because by the count of the original ballots cast in said Ward it appeared that another person was chosen.
